Why Attend

This event is designed to:

- Enhance your coaching skills & knowledge.
- Introduce you to subject matter experts speakers.
- Contribute to your personal development as a coach.
- Give an understanding of the EMCC EIA principles & assessment criteria.

Overview

The focal point of the first of this year's alumni events is personal growth and the day will be made up of a series of workshops to include:

- Introductory Session & Goal Setting Exercises with Myles Downey and Lynne-Marie Eccleston.
- Nicola Haskins, Faculty of The School one of the UK's most experienced Supervisors will speak about her experience, best practice and co-supervision.
- Dr Paul Brown, Professor in Organisational Neuroscience and Consulting Clinical and Organisational Psychologist and Executive Coach, will give a visual tour around the brain and its implications for organisational consulting; the nature of emotional intelligence and where complexity theory fits into all this.
- Claire Hack from the EMCC will give an overview of the European Individual Accreditation (EIA) process; its purpose, benefits and how to gain accreditation. You will be given a full set of EIA documents including guidance notes with examples and a pack of record keeping templates. Claire will also be on hand to answer your EMCC related queries.
